

Enablers of Leadership Transformation

Empowering facilitators

“ You have capacities within you that are phenomenal, if you only knew how to release them. ”
- David Bohm

Facilitators, Coaches, Change Agents and Leaders...

Enablers of Leadership Transformation (ELT)

We invite you to participate in the Enablers of Leadership Transformation (ELT), an innovative and in-depth facilitator development program that will forward your own transformation and help you liberate potential for your growth and catalyze transformation in others!

This three-month intensive experiential journey will help you:

Experience a sustainable shift in your mindsets and behaviour patterns in personal and professional life

Learn, practice and embody basics of ontological frameworks, neuroscience and mindfulness as applied to leadership

Acquire foundational skills needed to lead some of these modules independently for others, as facilitators/coaches

Become part of a network that deeply cares about enabling transformation in lives of others

Life Learning Solutions Pvt. Ltd. (LLSPL), a pioneer leadership and transformation consultancy organization, is proud to launch another edition of the facilitator development program, 'Enablers of Leadership Transformation' (ELT) in August 2018 for leaders/change agents.

ELT program is aimed at Change Agents, Senior Leaders in organizations, Trainers, Facilitators, Counselors and Coaches who would like to work on their own transformation and also facilitate transformation in others.

Program Structure:

The ELT program is an integrated and in-depth journey of three months, comprising in-person workshops and is supported with distance learning. It has evolved out of the application of the LLSPL Leadership Initiatives, developed over two decades of experience with varied organizations in the country and across the world.

The program content derives its inspiration from ontology, eastern philosophy, mindfulness, mindful communication and basic somatics. The program will include working through learning material, webinars, peer learning groups and personal coaching sessions.
